Colonel's party will consist of himself, Mrs. Roosevelt, his secretary, Frank Harper, and Mrs. Harper; his nephew, Theodore Douglas Robinson; his cousins, George B. Roosevelt, Kermit Roosevelt and former Governor of Porto Rico, Regis H. Post.

Arrangements have been made for a special telegraph service for the train, so that the Colonel will be in close touch with his managers throughout the journey. The train is scheduled to arrive in Chicago at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, and as to-morrow is a half holiday it is expected that there will be an immense gathering at the station to meet the Colonel. Sentiment in Favor of a Dark Horse Is Growing in Chicago Among the Leaders Who Want to Save the Republican Party.

(Special from a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.) CHICAGO, June 14 .- Col. Roosevelt's presence with the pecullarly Rooseveltian roar may be sufficient to reinflate the third-term balloon, but another ascension, except for exhibition purposes, would seem to be unlikely. It is leaking badly-in fact is about out of gas.

But the plight of the Colonel's managers is scarcely less desperate than that of the Taft leaders, who, while making a brave bluff of controlling things in the convention, secretly realize that a renomination would be a hollow victory, that a re-election under all the scandalous conditions would be impossible.

Talk of a compromise is carried on in whispers in both camps, but the seasoned campaigners from the first have foreseen that if the Republican party is not to be exterminated such an outcome must be forced.

Roosevelt Coaches Tailed On to Second Empire, but

Full of Fight.

The twelve-car special train of the delegates from Greater New York to the Chicago Convention went out from Grand Central Station with cheering and a great fluttering of flags and handkerchiefs at five minutes after noon to-day.

Platforms and staterooms were festooned with flowers and bunting. It was unlike old-fashioned coonvention trains, because many of the delegates took their wives and daughters along. There were about 180 passengers altosether. Though the train was called the "Taft Special," there were not a few Recevelt rooters aboard, notable among them Comptroller Prendergast, who is expected to nominate Roosevelt, and County Clerk Devoy of Brooklyn, who said with a grim smile: "You will see the whole Brooklyn delegation voting RIGHT at the RIGHT time." Thirty-five minutes later the Roosevelt special of three cars, attached to the second Empire express with a load of Recesvelt enthusiasts headed by Oscar Straus and his wife left the station "TAFT, FIRST AND LAST," ALSO "ROOSEVELT FIRST." Many of the prominent Republicans or
